September 1, 2009

Our Vision Statement, "SCS partners together with parents to teach and to train our children spiritually, academically and physically."

Brian Bryan was our chapel guest speaker last week. He is a Christian man who loves the Lord and Karate. Brian Bryan will be offering Karate classes on Fridays at 3:15 for any students interested. He only needs 4 students to make a class, so sign up now.

School will be closed on Monday, September 7th, in observance of the Labor Day holiday~ Take a rest and enjoy!

Picture Day!

Time for haircuts and ribbons! School pictures will be taken on Thursday, September 3rd. 1st - 7th grade students are to wear school uniforms for yearbook pictures. Mother's Day Out K2 - K5 students will be cute as usual in their non-uniform clothes. The background will be a neutral tan color.

The school picnic will be held September 19th from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. on the front lawn. We want to see everyone there for this fun time. There will be games, contests and maybe even a Dunk Tank. If you have a tent or lawn umbrella, please feel free to bring it. The Student Council will also be holding a BAKE SALE at the picnic.

Snack Shack starts Friday! The 7th grade students will be working the booth, so come and support them and bring your quarters for some yummy goodies.

We are collecting shoes for World Compassion Terry Law Ministries. This ministry provides shoes for children in Iraq. This is their open door to share the gospel with those families. There is a donation box in the SCS hallway for shoes. Information was sent home with SCS students and is available at the Front Desk. Cash donations must be turned in by Wednesday, September 9. Shoes will be purchased that evening. Shoe donations must be turned in by Friday, September 11.
